CHORALFEST

38th Annual

WELCOME TO CHORALFEST!

ChoralFest is an annual two-week, non-competitive festival that provides choirs and conductors the opportunity to work with choral and vocal jazz specialists from across the continent. The festival invites all levels and styles of choral singing. Over 100 choirs and 5,000 singers participate each year.

ChoralFest is open to all choirs; no matter a choir's level of experience, our clinicians work with each group at its own level.

Although ChoralFest is non-competitive, clinicians may recommend choirs to represent Manitoba at the national annual festival, MusicFest Canada.

FESTIVAL FORMAT

ChoralFest has something for everyone! Choirs of all styles and ages have the opportunity to learn, grow, and develop their singing skills and technique at ChoralFest.

Senior Years Choirs (Grades 9-12)

Senior Years Choirs choose between:

- Performance in pod system (up to three choirs) + two 20-minute clinics (from different clinicians); or
- 45-minute clinic at their school tailored to the choir's needs

Middle Years Choirs (Grades 5-8)

Middle Years Choirs choose between:

- Performance in pod system (up to three choirs) + one 30-minute clinic; or
- 45-minute clinic at their school tailored to the choir's needs

Early Years Choirs (Grades K-4)

Early Years Choirs in Winnipeg and surrounding areas receive a 45-minute clinic at their school, tailored to the singers' needs.

Community Choirs

Community Choirs perform in the pod system (up to three choirs), and afterwards receive two 20-minute clinics (from different clinicians).

Vocal Jazz Choirs

Vocal Jazz Ensembles perform in the pod system (up to three choirs), and afterwards receive two 20-minute clinics (from different clinicians).

CHORAL CLINICIANS

AMANDA CIAVARELLI (Winnipeg, MB)

Amanda Ciavarelli teaches elementary music and choir at École South Pointe School in Winnipeg, Manitoba. École South Pointe School choirs and Orff ensembles perform many times during the school year at school assemblies, community events and concerts, at the Winnipeg Music Festival, and with the Winnipeg Symphony Orchestra. Amanda is a graduate of the University of Manitoba and holds a Bachelor of Music and Bachelor of Education. She is a Level III Orff Certification graduate as well as a certified Carl Orff Canada Orff Levels Instructor. She is honoured to be a recipient of the Morna-June Morrow Award for Excellence in Education. Amanda is passionate about music education because of the important role music plays in the development and growth of children; fostering musicianship, teamwork, and communication while creating an opportunity for children to experience emotion and humanism through music.

GIUNG LEE 이기웅 (Winnipeg, MB)

GiUng Lee is a Korean-Canadian music educator and musician based in Winnipeg, Canada. Currently, he teaches grades 6-12 music at St. John's-Ravenscourt School, where he has designed and implemented a project-based music curriculum that emphasizes cultural relevance and fosters student creativity. As a choral leader, GiUng has served as the Artistic Director and Conductor of Prairie Voices, an award-winning youth and young adult community choir known for its dynamic and innovative performances. His work with youth and young adult singers is distinguished by a commitment to delivering choral music in fresh, engaging ways. GiUng holds a Master of Music in Choral Conducting and a Bachelor of Music in Voice from the University of Manitoba, along with a Bachelor of Education from the University of British Columbia. His educational and artistic philosophy is rooted in three key principles: experience, community, and agency.

DR. MELISSA MORGAN (Regina, SK)

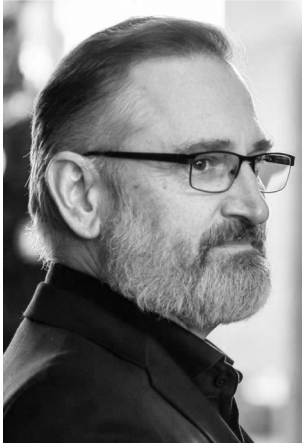

Dr. Melissa Morgan is a choral conductor, educator, speaker, and vocalist from Regina, SK. She is the Department Head of Music and Director of Choral Activities in the faculty of Media, Arts, and Performance at the University of Regina. Her responsibilities include conducting the auditioned Chamber Singers and the nonauditioned Concert Choir, in addition to teaching courses in choral conducting and serving on several university committees. Dr. Morgan is also the music director of the Campion College Musica Sacra music series. An active conductor, her choirs have performed and toured in Halls such as Lincoln Centre, New York and Cadogan Hall, London England. She is frequently asked to serve as a clinician and guest conductor with choirs throughout North America. Scholarly contributions of Dr. Morgan have appeared in the American Choral Directors Association publication, The Choral Journal, and the Canadian Music Educators Association Journal. Her publications also include articles in the peer-reviewed Teaching Music Through Performance in Choir, Vol. 5, published by GIA Publications Inc. Currently, Dr. Morgan is focussing her writing efforts on an Open Educational Resource (OER) textbook that focuses on singing for emerging vocalist and actors. Dr. Morgan is also working on writing contributions for a new book which focuses on women composers. As a highly active scholar, Dr. Morgan presents her research at local, national, and international events. For more information about Dr. Morgan please visit her website: www.classicmel.ca.

CHORAL CLINICIANS

HEATHER NEUFELD (Winnipeg, MB)

Heather Neufeld has been teaching music in the St. James-Assiniboia School Division in Winnipeg for 20 years, having taught at the elementary, middle, and high school levels. She currently teaches Concert Choir, Vocal Jazz, Musical Theatre, and English at Westwood Collegiate, and directs the award-winning St. James-Assiniboia Divisional Junior Concert Choir. Throughout her career, Heather's choirs have received Gold standings as well as recommendations to the National Music Festival. In 2023, Heather was the recipient of the Michael J. Proudfoot Award, recognizing a conductor exemplifying a passion for excellence in choral work. Heather holds a Bachelor of Music and Bachelor of Education from the University of Manitoba. As an accompanist, she has played for the Winnipeg Girls' Choir, the Irish Association, and various churches and schools throughout Winnipeg. She has performed with many choral groups, including the University Singers, ECCO, and numerous church choirs and small ensembles. Heather was the Director of the Winnipeg Girls' Choir for ten years, as well as an active choral clinician, adjudicator, and guest conductor throughout the province. Aside from teaching, Heather enjoys spending time with her husband, Tim, and her four children.

VIC PANKRATZ (Winnipeg, MB)

Vic Pankratz's love of singing, conducting and teaching led to a long career at Westgate Mennonite Collegiate, and on stages and concert halls across western Canada. He received his formal training at Canadian Mennonite Bible College and the University of Manitoba. He also studied opera at the Banff School for Fine Arts. Vic was artistic co-director of The Winnipeg Singers for five seasons with Mel Braun and artistic director of Prairie Voices for five seasons. He has on numerous occasions conducted the Westman, Eastman, and Central Manitoba Youth Choirs, the Manitoba Provincial Senior Honour Choir, and the Louis Riel Senior Divisional Choir. He currently works with Dead of Winter as a member of the artistic team, leading and directing the Winter Sings concert. He has enjoyed a wealth of opportunities in music performance. Vic has done solo work with Robert Shaw and the Mennonite Festival Chorus, the Winnipeg Symphony Orchestra, The Winnipeg Philharmonic Choir, Groundswell, the Winnipeg Bach Festival, the Regina Symphony Orchestra and Philharmonic Choir, Prairie Theatre Exchange, Pro Coro of Edmonton, and The Winnipeg Singers. He appeared in productions with the Manitoba Opera Association, Dry Cold Productions, the Edmonton Fringe Festival and The Royal Winnipeg Ballet. Besides a life filled with music making, Vic enjoys riding his bike year round and hanging out with his grandchildren, family, and friends.

BECKI THIESSEN (Winnipeg, MB)

Becki began teaching at Fort Richmond Collegiate in 2005, and built the Choral Program into a thriving, energetic community of students who love to sing together. Since then, Becki has been providing her students with a variety of musical experiences. Becki Thiessen loves being a part of the vibrant fine arts department dedicated to excellence at Fort Richmond Collegiate, and the Manitoba choral community. Becki loves gardening and hanging out with her family, friends, and cats.

CHORAL CLINICIANS

ROBERTA VELARDE (Winnipeg, MB)

Roberta's love for choir began by singing with her cousins in the dining room at the family farm, and on road trips when her dad would ask her, and her mom and sister to harmonize. She was actively involved in many musical events in the Interlake region including church choirs, music teams, productions, and choir at Stonewall Collegiate. Roberta grew up participating in the Rockwood Festival of Arts, and fondly remembers singing for adjudicators that would one day adjudicate her own choirs. Roberta graduated with a Bachelor of Music/Bachelor of Education from Brandon University in 2012. She has been building the choir family at West Kildonan Collegiate since 2014, working with a variety of music ensembles including Chamber Choir, Vocal Jazz, Concert Choir, and Musical Theatre. While working on her undergrad degree, Roberta directed a community choir in Hartney, MB. She has been invited to conduct the Westman Youth Choir, and Central Manitoba Choral Association's High School Choir Workshop, and served as Manitoba Choral Association's Professional Development Chair for many years. Currently, Roberta is completing a Master of Music in Choral Conducting at the University of Manitoba. Roberta shares the role of Artistic Director of Ecco Singers, after having sung with this Winnipeg-based ensemble for almost a decade, and has learned through all these experiences that singing is a great tool for building bridges and connecting communities.

ALISA WIEBE (Winnipeg, MB)

Alisa Wiebe was born and raised in Winnipeg in a family home filled with music. She took piano and violin lessons from a young age and found her musical niche when she joined choir. She holds a Bachelor of Musical Arts from Canadian Mennonite University and a Bachelor of Education from the University of Manitoba. Alisa teaches choir, vocal jazz, and fiddle at Collège Garden City Collegiate. In addition to her teaching, Alisa conducted the Pembina Trails Voices Ragazzi and has sung with The Winnipeg Singers and Polycoro. She has enjoyed opportunities to be a clinician and guest conductor around the province. In addition to making music, Alisa loves to read a good book, explore forests, and check out new playgrounds with her two young daughters and husband.

VOCAL JAZZ CLINICIANS

DYLAN BELL (Winnipeg, MB)

Juno-nominated Dylan Bell's musical curiosity has kept him effortlessly crossing and blurring musical boundaries. Dylan is a mainstay on the Canadian music scene, having sung with many of Canada's premier vocal ensembles, including the beloved a cappella quartet Cadence, and the innovative live-looping duo FreePlay. When he's not singing, he plays with world-music ensemble Autorickshaw and freelances as a keyboard player, bassist, Stickist and guitarist. Behind the mixing board, Dylan has produced or engineered several award-winning albums, including a Juno co-nomination as Best Engineer for the Cadence album "Twenty For One," "Ferris Wheels" with the world-renowned Swingle Singers, and the a cappella legends The Nylons' final Juno-nominated album, "Skin Tight." Dylan's work as a composer and arranger has garnered international recognition, as winner of the John Lennon International Songwriting Competition and numerous Contemporary A Cappella Recording Awards. When it comes to vocal arranging, Dylan wrote the book... literally. His major work "A Cappella Arranging" (co-written with Deke Sharon) was published by Hal Leonard Music in 2013 to international acclaim, and their followup book "A Cappella 2.0: The Next Level" was published in 2024. Dylan is also in demand worldwide as an instrumental teacher and vocal/choral clinician. Visit Dylan at www.dylanbell.ca.

STACEY NATTRASS BROWN (Winnipeg, MB)

Stacey Nattrass Brown is a choral and vocal jazz educator in the Seven Oaks School Division in Winnipeg, where she has taught at Garden City Collegiate for the past 25 years. Her ensembles perform at a high level and consistently receive recommendations to MusicFest Canada. Stacey has previously adjudicated for the Middle Years and Senior Years portions of Choralfest and has been a guest clinician in the Eastman and Central Manitoba choral regions. Stacey is in demand as a vocalist, frequently appearing with the Winnipeg Jazz Orchestra and performing anthems for the Winnipeg Jets. She is excited to hear all the wonderful vocal jazz groups from across Manitoba and looks forward to sharing some of the knowledge she has collected over the years.

SUBA SANKARAN (Winnipeg, MB)

Suba Sankaran is a Dora Award-winning, thrice JUNO-nominated world/fusion artist who effortlessly combines musical worlds. She has performed worldwide with Autorickshaw, master drummer Trichy Sankaran, and FreePlay (with her husband, Dylan Bell), among others. Performance highlights include performing for Peter Gabriel, Nelson Mandela, and Archbishop Desmond Tutu, and performing with Jane Siberry, Lorraine Segato, Bobby McFerrin, and the Swingles. Suba is in demand as a choral director, arranger, composer, and educator. She has created music for theatre, film, radio and dance, including collaborations with Deepa Mehta, the CBC, Stratford and Shaw festivals, and the debut of her original music at the Barbican Theatre in London as part of Why Not Theatre's Mahabharata production. June 2024 marked the world premiere of Suba's "Blue Skies, Red Earth, Tall Pines" nine-song suite commissioned by Jumblies Theatre, bringing together community poetry and stories around the theme of border crossings. Suba was recently awarded the 2023 Johanna Metcalf Performing Arts Prize and the 2023 Kathleen McMorow Music Award. www.subasankaran.com
